MASE: BELIEVE IN CHANGE SINCE 1970.

Generator sets, motorized welders and lighting masts projected into the future.

Being among the first means having an innovative mindset, a far-sighted approach and having the knowledge to anticipate the future.

Mase's pioneering approach has been developed in Italy and Europe with the creation of highly innovative projects, such as the first marine generator set and electric scooters.

This makes our brand a point of reference for the best global companies and entrepreneurs who have a long-term vision and who consider "innovation" as their distinctive trait.

Mase has always believed in change and progress, and this is summed up in the new slogan "Believe in Change".

You will find attached the catalog of the company MASE, very large manufacturer of generators, from the smallest to very high powers.
